Surah Ibrahim is the 14th surah of the Holy Quran and has 52 ayaat. It is commonly classed as Makki. It is named after Hazrat Ibrahim (AS), whose prayers for Makkah and for his family are mentioned in it. Its main themes are that Allah sent His messengers to guide people from darkness to light, that every messenger spoke the language of his own people, and that gratitude to Allah brings more blessings while ungratefulness brings loss. It also reminds us of the Day of Judgment. Your class studies selected ayaat from the textbook: the notes PDF on this page gives their word meanings and translation, so check the exact portion with your teacher.

Questions students ask

Q. Why is the surah named after Hazrat Ibrahim (AS)?

The surah mentions Hazrat Ibrahim (AS) and his prayers for Makkah and for his family, so it is named after him.

Q. Is Surah Ibrahim Makki or Madani?

It is commonly classed as Makki, meaning it was revealed before the Hijrah to Madinah.

Q. What is the main lesson of Surah Ibrahim?

A key lesson is gratitude: thanking Allah for His blessings, being patient and turning to Him in dua.

Q. Do these notes cover all 52 ayaat?

No. The notes PDF covers the selected ayaat in the PCTB Class 10 textbook, with their word meanings and translation. Ask your teacher which ayaat are in your syllabus.
